Malaria

Do you know what it is to have the genuine, old-fashioned "ague"? Not very pleasant to be obliged to look forward to a terrible chill, a raging fever, and profuse sweating every other day, is it? When malaria shows itself in chills and fever, intermittent fever, or ague,

That's Severe Malarial Poisoning

Or perhaps you have the "dumb ague." Your muscles are sore, your nerves are on a tension, and your bones ache as if they would break. You have your well day and your bad day, you suffer from periodical headaches, neuralgia, indigestion, extreme debility, and you are generally uncomfortable every minute of your life.

That's Ordinary Malarial Poisoning

You know, malaria is caused by the malarial germ. With proper medicine you can do two things: Keep these germs out or quickly kill them after they enter. To keep them out, take one or two doses daily of the only positive and never-failing preventive of malaria-

That's Ayer's Malaria and Ague Cure

If you already have malaria, either the severe or ordinary kind, you may rest assured that Ayer's Malaria and Ague Cure will give you prompt relief within a few hours.

Jennie Bosschieter's Murderers.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL New York, Oct. 31 .- Murder, as well as criminal assault, will constitute the counts in the indictments of Walter McAllister, Andrew Campbell, George Kerr and William Death, which will be found to-morrow against the four men charged with the death of Jessie Bosschieter. Judge Jonathan Dixon, before whom the four men will be tried, so directed the Grand Jury to-day, and it is known that that body is now prepared to follow the court's direction. Judge Dixon, who is one of New Jersey's leading furists, did not mince words in his talk to the jury. He made a special charge to that body, and his remarks evidenced a familiarity with Acting Commissioner of Public Buildings Stemme yesterday dismissed four inspectors of the department, owing to lack of funds to continue the force in service. F. W. Klusmeyer, whose salary was cut from the general appropriation bill, but who was retained by Mr. Longfellow, was among those discharged. He was local inspector of Public Buildings. The others suspended are F. M. Bartraw, John Magner and F. I. G. Knittel. The department now has one chief inspector and two subordinate inspectors.

Mr. Stemme asked City Counselor Schnurmacher for a legal opinion as to whether or not he would have the authority to discharge these four employes. Mr. Schnurmacher stated that the Commissioner of Public Buildings, with the consent of the President of the Board of Public Improvements, has that power by ordinance. Former City Counselor Marshall maintained that the President of the board has no jurdsdiction in such matters. Mr. McMath accepted the action of Mr. Stemme as official by not interposing any objection.

matter of current comment in Hebrew circles everywhere to-day.

Heretofore the Jewish Herald alone among the national publications of the Hebrews stood for the Democratic party. Now not one favors McKinley. All of these papers have large circulations in this city, where the Jewish vote amounts to upwards of 10,-600. The change of a greater portion of this vote to the Democratic party in this city, where majorities for the Republicans have ranged from only 5,000 to 14,000, is tantamount to a shifting of the balance of power into the hands of the Democratic party.

Doctor George H. Alch, chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements for the mass meeting at Harugari Hall, will point out in his introductory speech Sunday night that many if not most of the Hebrews in this city are of Russian birth, baving departed their native land because of the enforced military service to which their sons are there subjected during the best five years of their lives. The menace of imperialism is particularly baneful to them. The meeting is to be conducted almost entirely in Hebrew, in which language, too, the speeches are to be delivered. All points in the national Issues will be taken up in detail; the editorial of the Jewish Dally News will be read, as will also Mr. Bryan's reply to the same on October 22. There will be also a stereopticon exhibition by the Jefferson Club.

Agents of the Republican "machine," after a truce, made necessary by the chilly reception accorded them by Sewer Commissioner Hermann, Supervisor of Plumbing Grenzelach and other officials, on the third floor of the City Hall, yesterday renewed the assault to collect the le per cent assessment which the Republican City Central Committee levied against city officials and employes to help pay for "naturalizations." The committee expressed itself as anxious to produce subscriptions from city employes to the amount of $5,500.

The "third floor" of the City Hall is arcently loathed by the City Hall gang, excepting when the gang needs money, because only a few of the officials on that floor have any sympathy for the "machine." Mr. Filley, who is cordinally hated by the gang, has great and growing power on the "third floor," and his men were not approached by the Committee on Subscriptions. Several other officials on "the third floor," have no use for the "machine," and they likewise "thrun down" the agents. Akins Sends Begging Circular to Post Chairman Akins of the Republican State Committee is after the post office employes of the State for money, When the funds began to get low in the treasury, Mr. Akins had a typewritten letter prepared and sent broadcast. Every employe in the St. Louis Post Office, freelyed one of these communications.

There is a law prohibiting political parties from seeking campaign contributions from the employes of the Government, but it does not seem to apply in this case. A copy of the letter sent to local post office employes follows:

I address you to ask your hearty co-operation during the remainder of the campaign. I trust that you will not less an opportunity to speak a good word for the great party of your choice, and I dealer to assure you that this committee will not be unmindful of your interest. If you are forcested in the cause of the Republican party and dealer to contribute to that end, we would appreciate any contributions you may send to fi. C. SPECIAL POLLBOOK ISSUED.

Use by Election Officials Sanctioned by Chairman Seibert. A special pollbook has been issued to fudges and clerks in the coming election, the use of which is sanctioned by Chairman Selbert of the State Democratic Committee, and Chairman Akins of the State Republican Committee, thus making it the official pollbook. The judges and clerks of both parties in the city and State have been notified to this effect by their respective chairmen. The criginal form in which the pollbooks for the election were printed and sent out included in the same book the tally sheets. This form is impracticable because the law requires the vote to be counted every hour, and both the tally sheet and the pollbook could not be used by the counting and the receiving judges and clerks at the same time.

In order to avoid this difficulty, this special polibook has been issued and is to be the official polibook used in this election. In the original book, which combines both the polibook and the taily sheets, the polibook part, from pages 1 to 14 inclusive, is to be treated as null and void, and the remainder is to be used only as a taily sheet. In making returns the taily sheets will be attached to the polibook so that they will constitute one book, properly certified.
